. . . OF THE FUTURE

Artist's conception of the new wing scheduled for completion this summer.

TO THE LAY TEACHERS

OF DE LA SALLE . . .

To these sacrificing men who have devoted their lives to the betterment of youth . . . who have so ably aided the Christian Brothers in the long process of creating men out of boys . . . who have given so generously of their own time to make 'D' men the best in sports and spirit . . . who have followed De La Salle in its ever-widening expansion . . . who now turn their eyes to the next school year, when the new addition will enable even more boys to be slowly transformed into De La Salle men . . . to these "Alma Paters," we proudly dedicate the 1961 METEOR.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1960 DE LA SALL

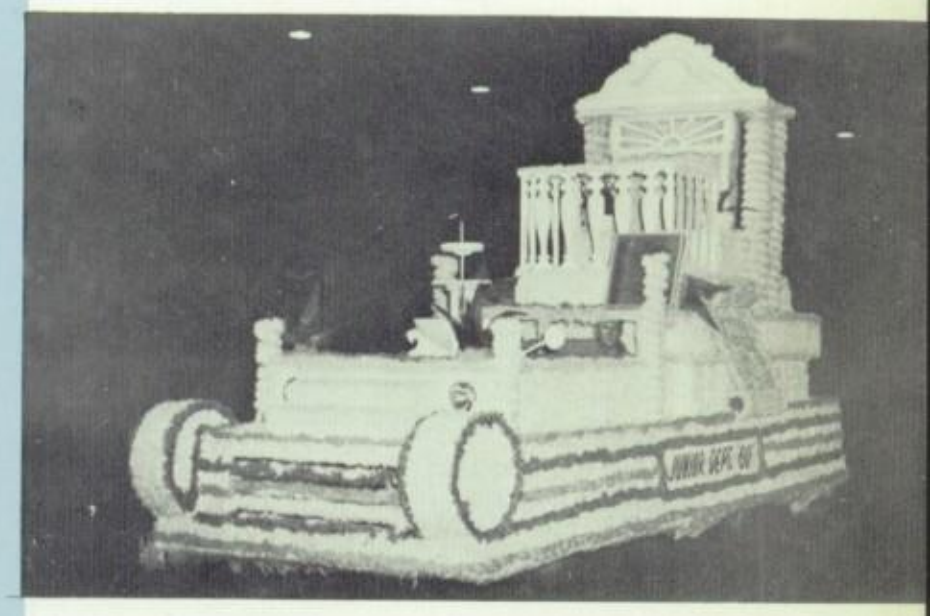
One of the many fine numbers, played by Del Rene and his band, put the couples in a dreamy mood.

HOMECOMING

A MEMORY IS MADE . . .

The Queen's float, which was sponsored by the seniors, parades before the student body at the halftime ceremonies.

The freshmen get into the act with a very fine float sporting representatives of their department.



This float, sponsored by the very dynamic juniors has a fountain which does work!!!!

Mr. Budrick and his date pause for a moment to make a wish before the magic fountain.

Senior 207's float carries some of the many loyal followers of De La Salle.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1960 DE LA SALLE MOCK ELECTION

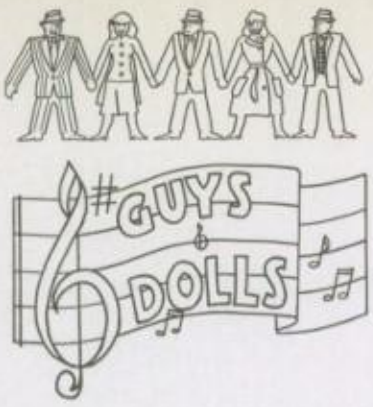
ACTIVITIES



A MUSICAL FABLE OF BROADWAY

Adelaide and the Powder Box girls.

Gambling in a manhole below New York.

Angie the Ox, Nicely-Nicely Johnson, and Benny Southstreet, report their wrong doings to the Mission leaders.

Nathan Detroit trys to explain his doings to Adelaide.

The holy rollers in the Mission lodge.

GUYS AND DOLLS

Sarah astonishes Shy by her irregular behavior.

Adelaide in a frustrated moment because of their fourteen year engagement.

The gamblers, made to follow the fold, sing in the Mission.

Directed by Mr. Lew

Adelaide appears with the Powder Box girls in Havana.

THE SENIOR PLAY

"Guys & Dolls" centered about a little-known Runyon story, "The Idyll of Sarah Brown," but it was enriched by a horde of Runyon's typical Broadway characters; Nathan Detriot, Sky Masterson, Big Jule, Benny Southstreet, Harry the Horse, and Nicely-Nicely Johnson, among others. All of them are gamblers, and the action concerns them, their troubles — the chief trouble being the difficulty of deciding between the rolling of dice and the beating heart. There are two love stories, equally wacky. The first involves the mercurial Nathan Detroit, a small but hotshot operator, and Miss Adelaide, a night club canary. The other romance concerns Sky Masterson, a big-time, free-living, free-loving plunger, and Sarah Brown, a Salvation Army lass, head of the gallant but rundown Save-a-Soul Mission. Complications ensue but, with a nod to the proverb, the course of true love is smoothed out along a bigger, if not necessarily better, Broadway.
